Violet Jane (Scott) Whitty
Ingonish Ferry

On Monday, April 1, 2019 Violet Jane (Scott) Whitty went home to her eternal God. She was born in North Sydney on March 24, 1942, to Thomas (Tubby) Scott and Casilda (Pookie) Cavanaugh. After Violet's father passed away, Pookie married Maurice Whitty, who became Violet's second father.

She worked at the Keltic Lodge in the housekeeping department for a number of years and also at the Highland Manor nursing home in Neil's Harbour for 25 years, until her retirement in 2006.

She was a devoted catholic, a member of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church choir, and dedicated member of the Catholic Women's League, serving in a number of positions, including president for several years. She loved to spend time with her family, go for daily walks with her husband, and swim in the ocean at Ingonish beach.

The most important people in her life were her beloved husband of almost 60 years, Maurice Francis, her kind and loving sons Leonard (Clare Johnson) and Perry (Lisa) and her caring and dedicated daughter Wanda (Dean Barron) who cared for her Mom daily throughout the past year. The greatest joys in her life were her cherished grandsons Alex, Brenden and Brett, who always made her smile and brought her pride.

She is also survived by her brothers Danny Cavanaugh, Billy (Millie) Scott and George (Wanda) Whitty, sister Maria Fitzgerald, as well as, her Whitty in laws who were more like brothers and sisters to her, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her parents-in-law George and Gertrude Whitty, her sons Frank, Blair, infant son Joseph, brothers Gerard and Alexander (in infancy), and sister-in-law Marie Cavanaugh.

She will be dearly missed by all who knew her, especially the staff and residents of Highland Manor nursing home, who treated her with dignity and love throughout the past year. Special thanks to the staff, as well as Doctors J. Ritter, K. Murray, B. Buffet and N. Smith.

Funeral mass will be held on Thursday, April 4, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. in St. Peter's Church, Ingonish Beach, with Father Alphonsus Iwuji officiating. Visitation hour in the church beginning at 10:00 a.m. A funeral reception will take place at Ingonish Community Center following the service. Burial will take place at a later date.
